

Lunch - J. Irving

What have you got in your lunch box?

What have you got today?

What have you got that we can share

When we go out to play?

Do you have a bag of chips?

Or maybe chocolate cake?

I hope it isn't yoghurt,

'Cos that makes my belly ache.

What have you got in your lunch box?

I hope that you don't mind

That you share what you brought for lunch today –

'Cos I left mine behind!
